The Ambassador

To whom it may concern:

I heartily support Janice Harrington's application to serve as an Artistic Ambassador for the Department of State. Janice has already served as an informal artistic ambassador to Poland. In September 2002, she came to Warsaw to perform at our 9/11 commemoration ceremony. She did this strictly out of a desire to give something back to our country and asked no pay for this appearance. Her ability to connect with the audience is breathtaking. During the ceremony she knew exactly what tone to take with our audience—alternately striking tones of sadness and joy.

I believe the Department of State will be well served by selecting Janice for this program.

Sincerely,

Dear Janice:

Thank you for playing such an important role in making Warsaw Gospel Days a success.

Your audiences loved you - it was manifested at each of your appearances and workshops - and we very much appreciated not only your music, but also your wonderful contact with your young audiences and the message you had delivered to them.

Your involvement in recruiting the crew of great gospel singers and bringing them along ensured that the festival was an important event in Warsaw.

We have heard the Polish organizers plan to repeat the workshops next year with more emphasis on educating their participants in the history of gospel and its roots in African - American history.

Thank you again for your constant cooperation with the Embassy's Cultural Section in its various programs.

Sincerely yours,
